RECOGNITION OF CHIEF DEPUTY U.S. MARSHAL FIDENCIO RIVERA FOR OUTSTANDING COMMUNITY SERVICE

BACKUP DOCUMENTATION:

Submitted at meeting – Copy of Proclamation declaring Fidencio Rivera Day

Minutes:

No motion required. A presentation was made.

MAYOR GOODMAN called forward KAREN COYNE, Chief of Detention and Enforcement Department, and recognized CHIEF DEPUTY U.S. MARSHAL FIDENCIO RIVERA for Outstanding Community Service. He has been instrumental in developing the Nevada Fugitive Investigative Strike Team and helped establish limited administrative subpoena authority for the local U.S. Marshals Service. The Mayor presented MR. RIVERA with a Proclamation and declared December 19, 2007, to be Fidencio Rivera Day in the City of Las Vegas.

CHIEF COYNE said that this was a bittersweet occasion for her, as she was happy to congratulate MR. RIVERA, but also sad to say goodbye to him as he moves on to his new career opportunity. She was very thankful for the relationship she has developed with MR. RIVERA. She commended him on his outstanding achievements in this community. She congratulated and wished him well on his new assignment.

MR. RIVERA said that so much was accomplished in this community due to great collaboration amongst the agencies. He greatly appreciated this honor from the greatest city in the world and MAYOR GOODMAN, the happiest mayor in the world.

ADDITIONAL RECOGNITIONS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS:

MAYOR GOODMAN congratulated COUNCILMAN BROWN on his ten years of service with the City. He gave him a ten-year-service pin and plaque.
